

The Chicago Bar Association CLE in Rome, Italy April 16-19, 2018

Greetings,

I want to personally invite you and your spouse/guest to join me at this year's outstanding CLE program in Rome, Italy. We have a wonderful program that includes a notable array of speakers from the U.S. and Italy and social programs that include an opening reception, tours, a cooking class and closing dinner at the fabulous Casina Valadier restaurant.

As the famous saying goes "All roads lead to Rome." Please join me and your colleagues from the bench and the bar for the Association's CLE program in Rome.

All the best to you and yours for the Holidays!

Hon. Thomas R. Mulroy
CBA President

Distinguished Participants:

Carlo Dalla Vedova, Dalla Vedova Studio Legale - Associazione Professionale
Carlo represented American college student Amanda Knox when she was accused of killing her roommate in Perugia, Italy.

Fabio Ferraro, De Berti Jacchia Franchini Forlani; Chair of European Union Law, Naples University
Because of its geography, Italy has the highest daily intake of migrants from Africa, the Middle East and Asia. Fabio has expertise on migrants' rights and human rights, and will discuss the European Union and Member States.

Alex Guttieres, International Law Offices of Guttieres & Grillandini
Alex has been involved in complex litigation and arbitration, and commercial ventures and transactions throughout the U.S., Europe, and Middle East.

Giovanni Salvi, Prosecutor General of Rome and former Chief Prosecutor of Catania (Sicily)
Judge Salvi will discuss criminal prosecution of international organizations involved in the trafficking of migrants and human beings.

Roberto Jacchia, De Berti Jacchia Franchini Forlani
Roberto is a founding partner of the Firm and is the leading partner of the competition and IP teams.

Marco Giorgi, Andersen Tax & Legal
Marco specialises in comparative corporate law and Japanese law. He also has considerable experience of corporate governance, legal and financial structuring and venture capital sourcing.

CLE Topics Include:

Immigration, Migration, and Asylum Policies in the E.U. and U.S.

Borghese Gallery & Museum Tour

Piazzale Scipione Borghese, 5, 00197 Roma

<http://galleriaborghese.beniculturali.it/it>

The Borghese Gallery is situated in Rome's most elegant gardens, the Villa Borghese gardens. One of Europe's most extraordinary museums, its collection of art started with Cardinal Scipione Borghese, a nephew of Pope Paul V. The Cardinal was a shrewd and obsessive collector with an aesthetic eye; he was a patron of Caravaggio and Bernini. Cardinal Borghese commissioned artworks from the greatest artists of his time, and used the villa to receive and entertain illustrious guests.

7:30 p.m.

Closing Dinner

Casina Valadier

Piazza Bucarest, 00187 Roma

<http://casinavaladier.com/en/>

Casina Valadier, a neoclassical architectural jewel, is located in the very heart of Villa Borghese, on the highest part of Pincio, and offers a unique and breathtaking view of Rome.

Built in the early 19th century by Giuseppe Valadier, it is a step away from the Spanish Steps and Piazza del Popolo, and is a favorite destination for Romans and tourists from around the world who, in the green of the park between history and art, can admire a wonderful view of the city of Rome.
