

Eight O'Clock Call

Friday, September 24, 2010

8:00-8:45 a.m.

CBA Building • 321 S. Plymouth Ct., Chicago

Complimentary. CBA members only.

Limit 100 persons. Coffee & rolls provided.

This program will also be Webcast live at www.chicagobar.org.

Register at www.chicagobar.org (under CLE Seminars).

Questions? Call 312-554-2032.

The Eight O'Clock Call is a forum designed to bring together lawyers and judges in a casual breakfast setting for an informal question and answer session. Judges will field questions on their careers, their court calls and their personal experiences as judges. Guest judges can not answer questions related to any specific case.

Welcome/Moderator:

Hon. E. Kenneth Wright, Jr., Presiding Judge, 1st Municipal District, Circuit Court of Cook County; Past President of The Chicago Bar Association

Panelists:

Hon. Jennifer Duncan-Brice, Individual Calendar Section, Law Division, Circuit Court of Cook County

Hon. James P. Flannery Jr., Jury Section, Law Division, Circuit Court of Cook County

Hon. Thomas L. Hogan, Jury Section, Law Division, Circuit Court of Cook County

Hon. Bill Taylor, Individual Commercial Calendar Section, Law Division, Circuit Court of Cook County

Closing Remarks:

Hon. Lewis Michael Nixon, Supervising Judge, Mechanics Lien Section, Chancery Division, Circuit Court of Cook County; President of the Illinois Judges Association

