CHICAGO, ILL. (December 5, 2012)— Take a lunch break Wednesday, December 12 and come out to the Daley Center for a free holiday concert by the Barristers Big Band, swing its way through the jazzier versions of Christmas classics.

Featured will be two songs from the Ellington/Strayhorn version of the Nutcracker Suite, “Sugar Rum Cherry” and “Dance of the Floreadores.” The Band’s version of “Sleigh Ride” pays homage to Glenn Miller and quotes famous Miller tunes throughout. “What Child is This?” is in 5/4 time. See if you can tap your foot to it. Vocalists will perform renditions of “Baby its Cold Outside,” “I’ve Got My Love To Keep Me Warm,” “I’ll Be Home for Christmas,” “White Christmas” and “What Are You Doing New Year's Eve?” and, drummer, Adam Grais, provides “The Little Drummer Boy's” gift to the boy king in grand style.
